NARRATIVE:

Mario Hernandez (Danny Mercado) has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, attempted escape, grand theft, multiple thefts, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances, being under the influence of controlled substances, petty theft with priors, marijuana possession and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations the longest being a three year term for felon in possession of a firearm. Hernandez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 22, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Hernandez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with priors is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
